Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.California Highway Patrol Lieutenant, Erin Red Wolff, call sign 95-L, is a street-smart, tough cop, and a great leader. She also happens to be gay. A twenty year veteran, she is assigned to command the Highway Patrol s most remote location, Crescent City. Here, nestled on the Pacific Ocean and the border with Oregon, among the magnificent Redwood forests, she finds police work, and people s attitudes towards gays in rural Northern California, is much different than in the big city. When two of her officers are brutally murdered, 95-L finds herself confronting small town politics, jurisdictional disputes, and a homophobic county sheriff with his own checkered past who is more concerned with getting reelected than solving the murders. The local authorities investigation doesn t pass the smell test. Someone has been planting evidence, trying to steer the investigation in a different direction, and everyone is only too anxious to pin the murders on an ex-con. Everyone except 95-L. Driven to find the real killer of her officers, 95-L launches her own investigation that leads from Malibu, to a clandestine meth lab in the remote mountains of a National Forest, and to a twenty-five year old unsolved murder in Virginia. It also leads to the realization that somewhere on the North Coast there s a serial killer preying on rich women.
