But the greatest of these is love. And These Three Remain seeks to cross reference other Scriptures related to these traits: faith, hope, and love. In some cases, the author offers her own insight into the Scripture that is referenced. There is a place at the end of each chapter for you to record your thoughts or feelings about that particular trait. Excerpt from And These Three Remain: According to the CCC, faith is both a gift from God and a human act by which the believer gives personal adherence to God. It is both a theological virtue given by God as grace, and an obligation which flows from the first commandment of God. Faith has two elements: (1) being convinced of the truth, certain of reality, and having evidence of unseen things; (2) believing, hoping in, embracing, and seizing the truth. Faith can be a very difficult thing to practice these days. Everywhere you look, people are letting each other down. Marriages fail because spouses dont want to keep their vows anymore. Business ventures fail because the parties involved no longer want to keep their word. The difference is, God will never let you down, so you can always have faith in Him. Trust in Him to help you to keep your faith when things arent going so well. Faith is mentioned many times in the Bible- it is very important in our walk with Christ. Without faith, we have nothing. Sometimes, its hard to have faith as we live our daily lives. Theres nothing...
