N 1658-59, when St. Mary s was erected into a county, there were already three Protestant churches in that part of Maryland, and irregular services had been held before the arrival of the Rev. William Wilkinson, the first pastor, who in 1650 took up about nine hundred acres of land, for which he paid to the Lord Proprietary a quit rent of eighteen shillings. This clergyman had no regular salary, but he soon won the affection of...
