R Bound in leather, of a convenient size to go in the vest pocket, It has nestled up against the short ribs of many thousand people in the trade in the past sixteen years in which it has been annually published. Price, 26 cents. Address this office. MOVIES USED TO ADVERTISE BOLIVIA S INDUSTRIES. The republic of Bolivia in South America is the first foreign country to make use of the movies in advertising its industries among the business men of the United States. Four reels of films have been prepared, based upon subjects that are intended to give some idea of the wealth, resources, and business activities and customs of that nation, and these have already been shown to several organizations of American business men, through the courtesy of the Bolivian Minister at Washington. The Chicago branch office of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce, has had several opportunities to present these views before important clubs and associations, and a notable degree of interest was aroused. While much attention has been given in the past few months to South American affairs, this is the first time that any considerable number of business men has been able to observe the actual daily conditions under which the activities of one of the nations take place. This method of gaining the...
